PRESS RELEASE

Top marks from OAD for V-ZUG ambassadors Caminada and Giovannini

The restaurant review portal Opinionated About Dining (OAD) recently honoured two V-ZUG ambassadors with an award. Schauenstein Castle from Andreas Caminada leads the ranking of the Top 100+ European Restaurants for 2018. The top chef's cuisine, which is big on flavour, completely won over the OAD community with seasonal products from the local region and has deservedly been awarded top place. A V-ZUG ambassador also features in the Top 100+ European Classical Restaurants 2018 category: Franck Giovannini took second place with his top-class French cuisine at the Hôtel de Ville in Crissier.

Proud to work together

V-ZUG looks forward to continue working together with these top-class chefs and congratulates Andreas Caminada and Franck Giovannini on their well deserved awards. Jasmin Riesen, Head of Marketing Relations V-ZUG: "Caminada and Giovannini embody the spirit of our appliances: top-quality, inspiration and attention to detail."
